

I am tired of the invasion of my privacy. If I want to obtain services from anyone, I know how to find them.

Most telemarketeers are trying to make a fast buck. If we open the channels up to legal business, the scam artist will find a way to sneak and lie their way through.

It's not worth the chance.

Any legal business I intend to continue doing business with, has no need to contact me by phone for advertisement!